

NUMBERED

GAINING WISDOM
WEEK 2 // DANNY ANDERSON

Your life is _____.

“Lord, remind me how brief my time on earth will be. Remind me that my days are numbered—how fleeting my life is. You have made my life no longer than the width of my hand. My entire lifetime is just a moment to you; at best, each of us is but a breath.” Psalm 39:4-5

Our days on earth are like grass; like wildflowers, we bloom and die.
Psalm 103:15

How do you know what your life will be like tomorrow? Your life is like the morning fog—it’s here a little while, then it’s gone. James 4:14

“People are frugal in guarding their personal property; but as soon as it comes to squandering time they are most wasteful of the one thing in which it is right to be stingy.” — Seneca

The shortness of life must _____ your life.

Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.
Psalm 90:12

1. You see each day as a _____.

This is the day the Lord has made. We will rejoice and be glad in it.
Psalm 118:24

“Days are expensive. When you spend a day you have one less day to spend. So make sure you spend each one wisely.” — Jim Rohn

2. You let go of the _____.

“Unforgiveness is like drinking poison yourself and waiting for the other person to die.” — Marianne Williamson

3. You _____ what is most important.

“If today were the last day of your life, would you want to do what you are about to do today?” — Steve Jobs

“I could have nothing left in the world but those relationships and be the happiest man in the world. As long as I have those relationships, I’m gonna be smiling ear to ear.” — Chase Smith

4. You live with _____.

“It’s only when you’re breathing your last that the way you’ve spent your time will become apparent.” — Seneca

How would your life change if you numbered your days?

Indeed, the “right time” is now. Today is the day of salvation.
2 Corinthians 6:2
